

AIRO

Arkansas Institutional Research Organization

Scholarship to Attend the Southern Association for Institutional Research (SAIR) Annual Conference

The SAIR 2015 Conference will be October 10-13, 2015 at the Hyatt Regency in Savannah, GA.

Eligibility: All voting members of AIRO are eligible, excluding the Board. The applicant's 2015-16 membership dues must be paid by the scholarship application deadline of Monday, August 17, 2015 for your application to be considered for the SAIR 2015 annual conference.

The AIRO Board will award scholarships based on the number of qualified applications and the amount of funds available in the AIRO account. Each recipient will receive $300 plus all SAIR conference registration fees to help defer the costs of attending SAIR. This scholarship works on a reimbursement basis. Each recipient will provide documentation to the AIRO Treasurer, Sonia Hazelwood (shhazelwood@ualr.edu) of actual SAIR attendance and then a check will be processed and sent back to their institution for reimbursement.

Application: First preference will be give to applicants who have been in the field of institutional research two years or less and/or never attended a regional or national institutional research conference before. By applying and accepting the scholarship, the recipient is agreeing to be on the local arrangements committee for the next SAIR that is held in Arkansas or on other committees as requested by the Board. The applicant must submit the following documents to the AIRO President, Danita Ormand (danita.ormand@uacch.edu) by 5:00pm, Monday, August 17, 2015.

1. Resume
2. A letter that describes the need and/or reason for wanting to attend SAIR.